

The Illinois Parks and Recreation Association's (IPRA) Health and Wellness Committee, announces Lockport Township Park District (LTPD) has earned the "Exceptional Workplace" Award for 2016.

Early in 2016, LTPD employees answered a variety of work-related survey questions and the agency earned 43 points out of a possible 46 points. This high-score shows that LTPD has much to offer its employees, and the Park Board and staff are to be commended.

"I've been working for the Lockport Township Park District for over 11 years now, and the people I work with truly are phenomenal," stated Pamela Hutton, public relations and marketing supervisor. "We all work together to make the Park District an exceptional place to work."

The Exceptional Workplace Award is good for a 5 year term. The Award itself will be presented to LTPD's Executive Director, Sue Micklevitz at the IPRA Annual Business meeting on Friday, January 20, 2017 at 5pm at the Chicago Hilton.
